Five Card Draw Cash Games

Object of the game:

Players will compete to accumulate chips from one another. Each chip will represent a cash value, $1, $2 or $4.

Rules of the game:

The minimum buy in at the table will be ten of the biggest bet allowed in the game. There is no maximum buy in.

Players are free to cash out their chips at their convenience, but all chips must be cashed out together. If a person cashes out, they must either wait a full button rotation before buying back into the table, or buy back in for the full amount they cashed out.

Players can choose and move between seats as they open. If there are no available seat a waiting list will be established by the floor manager. When a seat opens up, any player at the table may move to that seat, while the player on the waiting list fills whatever seat ends up left open.

Established tables can switch games or stakes, but the change must be unanimous amongst players at the table.

Equipment to be used:

Each dealer will be issued a cash chip rack, a deck case consisting of two different colored decks of cards, a cut card and a button.

Five Card Draw Method of play

Players ante according to the betting structure being used.

Starting with the player to the dealer's left, the dealer deals each player five cards, face down.

Everyone picks up their cards from the table and checks their hand.

There's a round of betting, starting with the player to the dealer's left.

When the betting is done, those who are still in the hand get to trade in one, two, or three cards from their hand for new ones.

Players don't have to trade any cards, they can stand pat, keeping the cards they were first dealt.

After everyone receives their new cards, there's another round of betting, starting to the dealer's left. After the betting is completed, players show their hands and the best hand wins the pot.

Types of Wagers for the game/Wager amount for the game:

One bet, four raises maximum per betting round.

Blind structures can be $1-$2, $2-$4, $4-$4, or $1-$4 spread limits. In $1-$2, antes are one dollar, and all bets take place in two dollar increments. In $2-$4 antes are one dollar, the first round of bets is in two dollar increments and the second is in four dollar increments. In $4-$4 all blinds and bets are made in four dollar increments. In $1-$4 antes will be one dollar, and all bets can be anywhere from one to four dollars at each player's discretion.

Payout and Payout odds:

Players are free to cash out at their convenience.

House Rules Applicable to All Games:

No swearing at or berating other people at the table.

Protect your hand at all times.
