Crazy Pineapple Hold Em Cash Games

Object of the game:

Players will compete to accumulate chips from one another. Each chip will represent a cash value, $1, $2 or $4.

Rules of the game:

The minimum buy in at the table will be ten of the biggest bet allowed in the game. There is no maximum buy in.

Players are free to cash out their chips at their convenience, but all chips must be cashed out together. If a person cashes out, they must either wait a full button rotation before buying back into the table, or buy back in for the full amount they cashed out.

Players can choose and move between seats as they open. If there are no available seat a waiting list will be established by the floor manager. When a seat opens up, any player at the table may move to that seat, while the player on the waiting list fills whatever seat ends up left open.

Players taking a new seat will have to post a big blind in order to receive a hand.

Established tables can switch games or stakes, but the change must be unanimous amongst players at the table.

Equipment to be used:

Each dealer will be issued a cash chip rack, a deck case consisting of two different colored decks of cards, a cut card and a button.

Pineapple/ Crazy Pineapple Methods of play

Pineapple is played exactly the same was as Hold 'em, with one key change, players are dealt three hole cards instead of two. In Pineapple, players discard one card before the dealer places the flop on the table. In "Crazy" Pineapple, the extra hole card is discarded after the flop's betting round, before the turn is placed on the board. With these exceptions, play in Pineapple and Crazy Pineapple proceeds in the same way as a regular Hold 'em game.

Types of Wagers for the game/Wager amount for the game:

One bet, four raises maximum per betting round.

Blind structures can be $1-$2, $2-$4, $4-$4, or $1-$4 spread limits. In $1-$2, blinds are one and two dollars, and all bets take place in two dollar increments. In $2-$4 blinds are one and two dollars. Pre flop and flop bets take place in two dollar increments, while turn and river bets take place in four dollar increments. In $4-$4 all blinds and bets are made in four dollar increments. In $1-$4 blinds will be one and two dollars, and all bets can be anywhere from one to four dollars at each player's discretion.

Payout and Payout odds:

Players are free to cash out at their convenience.

House Rules Applicable to All Games:

No swearing at or berating other people at the table.

Protect your hand at all times.

English only, even if you're speaking to someone off the table.

Verbal declarations made in turn are binding.
