How to Play

HOW IT WORKS "RACE TO RICHES" 7896

"Race to riches" is a standard bingo event game played in conjunction with a bingo game. The game contains instant winners and bingo ball and horse "hold" tickets.

After paying the $0.50 ticket price, a player opens the die-cut windows on the reverse side of the ticket. If the symbols on the inside of the ticket match a designated combination on the front of the ticket, that player wins the corresponding prize. Instant winners consist of three matching symbols in a horizontal row:

- 3 Jockeys: 1 @ $50
- 3 Wreaths: 1 @ $10
- 3 Trophies: 5 @ $2
- 3 Horseshoes: 270 @ $0.50

Once the deal is sold out, the drawing of the bingo balls and the filling of a vertical "row" on the flashboard will determine hold ticket winners. Hold tickets appear in two formats: a white bingo ball with a numeral falling within the same range as a standard bingo game (i.e., 1-75), and horse tickets (depicting a horse and jockey) in red, white, and blue with a number between 1-15 for each color (Red, White, and Blue).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE WHITE BALL "HOLDERS"

When the bingo game begins, the player holding the "White Ball" hold ticket with the number corresponding to the first bingo ball drawn wins $100.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HORSE HOLDERS

As with the other holders, persons holding tickets with the corresponding number wins the designated prize. For example, if the row containing numbers 4, 19, 34, 49, and 64 is filled first (see example below), the operative number is 4 and the three persons with the horse and jockey "hold" tickets wins the prize as stated on the flare card: Red horse holder wins $300; White horse holder, $200; and Blue horse holder, $100, and game play is complete.
